Details:

Boulevard, CA - Celebrate Thanksgiving as our forefathers and native people may have done: community style and close to nature. Sacred Rocks Reserve and RV Park, a 163-acre wilderness reserve with RV and tent camping sites (formerly Outdoor World RV Park), is offering a community Thanksgiving Dinner Potluck, to celebrate the Thanksgiving Holiday. The event will be held on Thanksgiving Day, Thursday, November 27, 2008. Turkey and Ham will be provided, guests are asked to bring a dish to share and beverages and plates and utensils for their family.

“Thanksgiving is all about family and being grateful for the simple, good things in your life,” says Sharon Courmouis, owner of Sacred Rocks Reserve. “There’s no better place to connect with family than in nature, where there are few distractions,” she adds. Sharon and her husband Dimitri say that many people love cold weather camping because of the opportunity to experience some seasonal weather. “Plus it’s a good excuse to get cozy by the bonfire with a big mug of hot cocoa,” she says. Family activities available over the Thanksgiving Holiday include nature hikes, ball games on the clubhouse TV, cold weather camping, star-gazing and a community bonfire in the evening. Also suggested is a train ride at the nearby Pacific Southwest Railway Museum.

Regular site fees for RV camping and tent camping will apply. Day visitors are also welcome for the Thanksgiving Day Potluck. Sacred Rocks is located near Boulevard, California, approximately 65 miles East of San Diego along Interstate 8, at the head of the Pacific Crest Trail. Sacred Rocks Reserve is located at 1331 Shasta Way in Boulevard, California. Reservations are required. For information, call: 619-766-4480 or visit: www.sacredrocksreserve.com.
